COMMENTS BY MAYOR, ADMINISTRATOR AND COUNCIL MEMBERS

Mr. Merrill recalled a popup party on Mali Drive that had occurred a year ago. He observed that a recent unruly gathering at Long Branch caused those memories to resurface and expressed his concerns that the Borough had adequate legislation in place to discourage such events, adding that a notice regarding a similar gathering in Berkeley Heights had appeared on the North Plainfield community page. The Mayor replied that our local police make it a practice to monitor the page. It would be up to the Council if any sort of resolution were brought forward attempting to regulate such gatherings. The Councilman rejoined that the Long Branch mayor appeared to be deflecting the gathering to New Jersey Transit since that was the apparent means of travel chosen by the partiers.

Council President Stabile cautioned against publicity that could paint a target on North Plainfield. Ms. Miller offered the possibility of putting a limit on the number of people attending gatherings, while Mr. George said that there were attempts to limit the number of individuals congregating in private homes for a party. The Mayor reminded that there are already a variety of ordinances on the books that would have shut down last year's Mali Drive gathering, such as measures regarding noise, intoxication and public lewdness. It was a matter of enforcement. Mr. Merrill recalled that wristbands had been sold for the Mali gathering that opened the door to underage drinking – a clear violation of the law. The Mayor added that the Mali pop-up was unadvertised, and had so abruptly increased in size and volume that residents lacked the time to alert the police. Ms. Schaefer agreed that police had received minimal public input regarding the Mali Drive gathering. Mr. McIntyre suggested asking the Police Chief for guidance on regulating potentially unruly gatherings. The Council President observed that there is a patchwork of ordinances in place that could help with controlling them.

Mayor La Ronde reminded of the range of Memorial Day exercises in town which would follow prior years' observances. Shopping bags made from recycled materials are being given away by the Borough supported by prior Clean Community Day grant monies in efforts to create alternatives to plastic shopping bags, and the Girl Scouts are selling bag pods as fundraisers. "Diversity in the Borough" has been announced as the 4th of July Parade theme. The High School's Hope Club will serve as Grand Marshals to the parade.

The next County-sponsored vaccine clinic is planned for Sunday, June 12th at the Firehouse. Free home radon testing kits are once again available from the Mayor's Office. Ms. Miller suggested that the kits be supported by publicity as part of the Borough's advocacy for poison prevention. Juneteenth will be celebrated June 18th on the middle school grounds. The Councilwoman suggested that the event remain celebratory but solemn.

Ms. Schaefer reiterated that she is in full support of the Fire Department and any equipment necessary to help them in their quest to protect the Borough and its residents.

The Pride Flag will be hoisted by the Fire Department on June first, and will continue flying for the entire month of June.

Motion to adjourn by Mr. Merrill, seconded by Mr. McIntyre and on voice vote carried unanimously.

Meeting adjourned at 9:27 p.m.
