

North Plainfield Police
Department

Press Release: June 18, 2019

Chief William G. Parenti has announced that Wednesday June 19th is a day for congratulations, to all our students who have persevered through over 9 weeks of Drug Abuse Resistance Education “DARE” training. North Plainfield’s 5th grade students were recognized for their hard work with a graduation ceremony at the Somerset School multipurpose room. To mark this great day Chief William Parenti delivered the keynote speech and was assisted by Mayor Mike Giordano, Jr. and Superintendent of schools Michelle Vela in handing each child their graduation gifts. This is a great achievement, and one that law enforcement and community leaders recognize across the country. The police department is very proud of the student graduates as these students have undergone training that has tested their mental attitude and their ability to think for themselves.
